NARRATION 1: In the first chapter of the book of Revelation we have an opportunity to see Jesus (Music track begins) through the eyes of the Apostle John, as he wrote;

JOHN: "I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and I heard behind me a loud voice like the sound of a trumpet, saying, 'Write in a book what you see.'"

(Live Music begins if track isn't used) I turned to see the voice that was speaking with me. Having turned I saw seven golden lampstands; and in the middle of the lampstands (was) one like a son of man, clothed in a robe reaching to the feet, and girded across His breast with a golden girdle. His head and His hair were white... like snow. His eyes were like a flame of fire; and His feet were like burnished bronze. His voice was like the sound of many waters. And in His right hand He held seven stars; and out of His mouth came a sharp two-edged sword; His face was like the sun shining in its strength.

When I saw Him, I fell at His feet as a dead man. He laid His right hand upon me, saying, 'Do not be afraid; I am the first and the last... the living One; I was dead, and behold, I am alive forevermore.'"
